THE UNIVERSE OF JEN: GAMMA RAYS

DECLARATION

The Universe of Jen is a living framework for tending the key areas of my life, naming what matters, tracking what supports my becoming, and staying accountable to the life I actually want to live. My values are the gravity that hold everything in orbit.

It is self-stewardship as devotion. It is here to move me with intention.

I am not starting from emptiness. I am starting from everything I have already survived, reclaimed, learned, loved, and become. I have steadied the Universe.

Now I map the stars.

NORTH STAR

I stand exactly as I am, and move as exactly who I am, guided by The Purple Codex as my light ripples outward.

GRAVITY

My foundational values:

Freedom: I must be able to move, choose, breathe, and self-direct.

Autonomy: I trust myself as the primary authority of my own life.

Sovereignty: I do not abandon myself to maintain false peace.

Alignment: I choose what fits the truth of who I am now.

Solitude: I require sacred alone-time to hear myself clearly.

Resonance: I follow what hums, not just what makes sense on paper.

Beauty: My environment and creations should nourish my senses.

Wonder: Mystery, music, dreams, travel, and awe are not extras; they are fuel.

Devotion: I grow by tending what matters consistently.

MOON

The Shadow of Reinvention

Fragmentation · Over-Adaptation · Endless Reconstruction

One of the greatest strengths within this Universe is my ability to create, adapt, evolve, and build meaning from complexity. I am deeply imaginative, reflective, systems-oriented, and capable of profound transformation. These qualities helped me survive periods of instability, chaos, emotional fragmentation, and constant change. Reinvention became both a coping mechanism and a form of protection.

Because of this, one of the core shadows within my Universe is the temptation to continually rebuild myself, my systems, my identity, or my path each time I evolve. There can be an urge to start over rather than deepen, to reconstruct rather than refine, or to seek a new framework instead of fully inhabiting the one I have already built.

This pattern often appears disguised as growth, insight, inspiration, or expansion. In reality, it can become a subtle form of fragmentation that prevents deeper rooting, embodiment, consistency, and long-term stewardship.

The purpose of this Moon is not to suppress evolution or creativity. Growth, adaptation, and expansion are natural parts of my path. The purpose is to remember that not every insight requires a new foundation. Many forms of growth are meant to integrate into the existing structure rather than replace it entirely.

The Universe of Jen was created to be expansive enough to hold future evolution without requiring constant reinvention. It is intended to function as a living ecosystem — one capable of growth, refinement, seasonal change, and deeper embodiment over time.

I do not need to reinvent myself in order to continue becoming.

My task is no longer only to create.

It is also to root, tend, trust, and remain.

HIERARCHY OF THE UNIVERSE

The complete flow...

The Purple Codex - The guiding framework: Principles, Conditions of Coherence, Meaning Makers

Universe — the whole living field of me.

Gravity Values — what holds me true.

Galaxies — the six major domains of my life.

Solar Systems — the major themes and focus areas within each Galaxy.

Suns — the central goals, intentions, or outcomes that give direction.

Planets — the projects, practices, routines, and actions that support the Sun.

Moons — the shadows, risks, resistance patterns, and emotional tides that reveal what needs tending.

Stardust — the small supports that keep the system steady.

GRAVITY (NORTH STAR + VALUES)

NORTH STAR

I stand as exactly as I am, and move as exactly who I am, guided by the Purple Codex as my light ripples outward.

VALUES

FREEDOM

I must be able to move, choose, breathe, and self-direct.

Freedom is the spaciousness that allows my life to remain mine. It means I do not build cages out of obligations, expectations, relationships, work, money, or old identities. My growth must increase my ability to choose, not shrink it.

AUTONOMY

I trust myself as the primary authority of my own life.

Autonomy means I am allowed to decide what is true for me. I can seek wisdom, feedback, collaboration, and support, but I do not outsource my inner knowing. My life is not built by committee.

SOVEREIGNTY

I do not abandon myself to maintain false peace.

Sovereignty is the line between compassion and self-erasure. It reminds me that keeping the peace is not sacred if it requires me to betray my own truth. I can be loving without being available for distortion, chaos, or collapse. I will always be authentic to my true self.

ALIGNMENT

I choose what fits the truth of who I am now.

Alignment means I do not keep choosing from who I used to be, who others expect me to be, or who I once hoped someone else would become. I choose from the present truth of my body, spirit, values, energy, and future.

SOLITUDE

I require sacred alone-time to hear myself clearly.

Solitude is not isolation or avoidance. It is the quiet field where I return to my own signal. I protect time alone because it restores my clarity, creativity, nervous system, and spiritual connection.

RESONANCE

I follow what hums, not just what makes sense on paper.

Resonance is my inner tuning fork. It helps me notice what feels alive, true, magnetic, or quietly correct. Logic matters, but it is not the only form of intelligence I trust.

BEAUTY

My environment and creations should nourish my senses.

Beauty is not frivolous. It is part of how I regulate, remember, and create. The spaces I inhabit, the tools I use, the things I make, and the way I present my work should feel visually, emotionally, and spiritually nourishing.

WONDER

Mystery, music, dreams, travel, and awe are not extras; they are fuel.

Wonder keeps my Universe expansive. It reminds me that I am not here only to work, heal, manage, and maintain. I am here to be moved, surprised, enchanted, and opened.

DEVOTION

I grow by tending what matters consistently, not by forcing myself into punishment loops.

Devotion is steady care without self-violence. It is how I build trust with myself over time. I do not need harshness to grow; I need rhythm, reverence, honesty, and return.

THE PURPLE CODEX

The Purple Codex is the guiding framework beneath the Universe of Jen.

It is not a rigid doctrine or identity system, but a living field of orientation — a way of understanding how to move, sustain, interpret, and express a conscious life.

Each layer serves a different function within the whole.

It answers: “What am I actively building and tending?”

The Universe is practical, grounded, and embodied.

The Purple Codex flows through it as the underlying field.

THE GUIDING FIELD

The Purple Codex is the deeper architecture beneath the Universe: the philosophical, energetic, symbolic, and interpretive framework that shapes how the Universe functions.

It is composed of three interconnected layers.

Principles (orientation): How I choose to exist

Conditions of Coherence (sustaining): The conditions that allow me to flourish

Meaning Makers (interpreting): How I make interpret and make meaning of my existence

The Universe (embodiment): The structure of my actual life and how I steward it all. It is the lived ecosystem.

Together, they are:

- a philosophy,
- a nervous-system-aware life architecture,
- a symbolic meaning framework,
- and an embodied operating system,
all without collapsing into rigidity or performance spirituality.

PRINCIPLES

How I choose to exist.

These Principles are governing truths and orienting ethics that guide my behavior, decisions, relationships, and stewardship of self.

RADICAL INTEGRITY •
EMBODIED ALIVENESS • SELF-DIRECTED AGENCY •
MUTUAL SOVEREIGNTY • INTENTIONAL EVOLUTION •
COHERENT DISCERNMENT • ENERGETIC STEWARDSHIP •
INTERCONNECTED CONSCIOUSNESS

RADICAL INTEGRITY

Truth • Wholeness • Self-honor

I do not abandon myself to maintain comfort, attachment, or perception. I act in alignment with what I know to be true, even when it is inconvenient or misunderstood. This is the foundation of all other principles.

EMBODIED ALIVENESS

Presence • Expression • Joy

I allow myself to fully feel and experience life in my body. Joy, creativity, and emotional expression are not moderated for safety. Aliveness is not something I earn—it is something I allow.

SELF-DIRECTED AGENCY

Initiate • Create • Act

I do not wait for permission, urgency, or external pressure to move. I choose, I begin, and I follow through from my own internal directive. My life is built through deliberate action, not reaction.

MUTUAL SOVEREIGNTY

Respect • Dignity • Autonomy

I meet others as whole beings, not roles to manage or control. I do not dominate, and I do not submit. I honor the inherent worth and autonomy of all people, including myself.

INTENTIONAL EVOLUTION

Grow • Refine • Elevate

I am in constant, conscious refinement. Growth is not forced or frantic—it is deliberate, layered, and aligned with my path. I evolve by choice, not by chaos.

COHERENT DISCERNMENT

Clarity • Wisdom • Intuition

I integrate logic and intuition rather than choosing between them. I pause, observe, and respond from clarity instead of reacting from noise. My decisions are grounded, thoughtful, and internally aligned.

ENERGETIC STEWARDSHIP

Boundaries • Balance • Renewal

My energy is finite and valuable. I protect it, restore it, and direct it intentionally. Rest is not avoidance—it is maintenance of the system.

INTERCONNECTED CONSCIOUSNESS

Ripples • Responsibility • Belonging

I recognize that my choices exist within a larger web of impact. I move through the world with awareness of how I affect others and the systems around me. Connection does not require overextension—it requires presence.

CONDITIONS OF COHERENCE

The conditions that allow me to flourish.

The Conditions of Coherence are the sustaining emotional, energetic, environmental, and creative conditions that allow my system to remain healthy, sovereign, alive, and aligned.

They are not goals to achieve or identities to perform. They are the conditions that help me function at my highest level and live in greater harmony with myself, my values, and my path.

PEACE • PREDICTABILITY • PRODUCTIVITY • PASSION • POWER

PEACE

Stability • Safety • Inner Calm

Peace is the condition that allows me to hear myself clearly. It is the foundation beneath my clarity, creativity, discernment, and well-being. I no longer confuse chaos, urgency, intensity, or emotional volatility with aliveness. While life will always contain challenge and uncertainty, I intentionally cultivate environments, relationships, rhythms, and choices that support steadiness instead of fragmentation.

Peace does not mean passivity or avoidance. It means remaining rooted within myself. It means trusting my ability to create stability, protect my energy, navigate difficulty with clarity, and leave situations that repeatedly pull me away from my own center.

I value peace because it allows every other part of my universe to function more coherently.

PREDICTABILITY

Rhythm • Stability • Self-Trust

Predictability creates safety for my nervous system and spaciousness for my creativity. I thrive when my life contains rhythms, patterns, structure, and a general sense of steadiness. I do not seek rigidity or a life without spontaneity, challenge, or adventure. I simply recognize that constant instability drains my energy and fractures my focus.

I value knowing the general shape of my responsibilities, commitments, and direction so I can move through life with greater intention instead of constant reaction. The routines, systems, and structures I create are not cages. They are supportive frameworks that help me sustain momentum, reduce unnecessary chaos, and make clearer decisions.

Predictability allows me to choose my adventures consciously rather than living in perpetual survival response.

PRODUCTIVITY

Momentum • Stewardship • Meaningful Action

Productivity is the intentional direction of my energy toward what matters most. It is not rooted in constant output, external validation, hustle, or exhaustion. It is the steady movement of my life force toward growth, creation, contribution, maintenance, and meaningful progress.

I value tending my home, my work, my health, my creativity, my relationships, and my personal evolution with consistency and care. Rest is part of this process, not separate from it. Productivity without restoration leads to depletion, while restoration without movement leads to stagnation. Coherence requires both.

Small, deliberate actions create compounding change over time. I trust the power of steady stewardship more than frantic intensity.

PASSION

Aliveness • Creativity • Engagement

Passion is the feeling of being fully connected to life. It is curiosity, inspiration, creativity, beauty, fascination, pleasure, meaning, and emotional engagement with the world around me. Passion reminds me that life is not meant to be endured mechanically. It is meant to be experienced.

My creativity is not limited to traditional artistic expression. It exists in the way I think, design, write, observe, connect ideas, solve problems, build systems, create atmosphere, and move through the world. Passion lives wherever I allow myself to care deeply, explore freely, and express honestly.

I protect my passion because it restores color, vitality, imagination, and soul to my life. It reconnects me to the parts of myself that create meaning, wonder, and expansion.

POWER

Sovereignty • Capacity • Inner Strength

Power is my ability to remain anchored within myself and act from my own internal authority. It is not domination, control, performance, or power over others. It is self-trust, discernment, resilience, capability, and the willingness to fully inhabit my own life.

This power grows through integrity, self-awareness, healing, boundaries, knowledge, skill, and conscious action. It allows me to make decisions aligned with my values, protect my energy, express myself honestly, and move through the world with greater confidence and clarity.

I do not need to diminish others in order to strengthen myself. True power expands capacity rather than control. The stronger and more coherent I become within myself, the more grounded, compassionate, creative, and impactful my presence becomes outwardly.

MEANING MAKERS

How I interpret and make meaning of existence.

The Meaning Makers are the symbolic, philosophical, emotional, and mythic frameworks through which I interpret reality, connection, creativity, consciousness, and the human experience. They are not rigid beliefs or fixed doctrines. They are recurring lenses through which I understand the world, navigate transformation, and create coherence between the seen and unseen aspects of life.

They help me remain connected to wonder, depth, symbolism, intuition, and possibility while staying grounded within lived experience. Together, they form the deeper symbolic architecture beneath my Universe.

AUTHENTICITY • TRIALITY • FREQUENCY AND RESONANCE • THE VOID •
QUANTUM THREADS • THE SPIRAL • MYCELIUM • DREAMS • MUSIC

AUTHENTICITY

Truth • Expression • Self-Honoring

Authenticity is the commitment to existing as myself rather than shaping my identity primarily around approval, fear, expectation, performance, or external pressure. It is the willingness to live in alignment with my own voice, values, preferences, creativity, boundaries, and inner knowing.

Authenticity does not require aggression, spectacle, or constant self-disclosure. It simply requires honesty. It allows my outer life to become increasingly coherent with my inner life.

This Meaning Maker reminds me that self-expression, truthfulness, and individuality are not disruptions to my path. They are essential parts of it.

TRIALITY

Beyond Duality • Possibility • The Third Path

Triality is the understanding that existence rarely exists in absolutes. Beyond black and white, right and wrong, light and dark, there are layers, gradients, paradoxes, tensions, and possibilities that coexist simultaneously. Triality represents the space beyond rigid binary thinking — the place where complexity, nuance, transformation, and emergence become possible.

It is the mist between states. The threshold between certainty and potential. It reminds me that life is often shaped not by choosing between two extremes, but by discovering the deeper path that exists between and beyond them.

Triality invites openness, curiosity, discernment, and the willingness to remain in dialogue with uncertainty rather than collapsing prematurely into fixed conclusions.

FREQUENCY & RESONANCE

Alignment • Intuition • Energetic Truth

Frequency and Resonance represent my awareness that people, environments, ideas, experiences, and choices carry distinct emotional and energetic qualities. Some create expansion, clarity, coherence, and alignment. Others create contraction, fragmentation, confusion, or depletion.

This is not about perfection, superiority, or constant positivity. It is about discernment. I trust my ability to sense what feels aligned, nourishing, grounding, inspiring, or destabilizing within my own system.

Resonance helps guide my decisions, relationships, environments, creative work, and direction in life. It reminds me that alignment is not something I force externally. It is something I learn to recognize internally.

THE VOID

Potential • Creation • The Unformed

The Void represents the space of infinite potential before form fully emerges. It is not emptiness in the sense of absence, but emptiness in the sense of openness — the fertile unknown from which creation, insight, imagination, and transformation arise.

The Void is where old identities dissolve and new possibilities begin to gather shape. It is the space above certainty, beyond performance, beneath noise. Entering it requires trust, because clarity is not always immediate there. Yet within that openness exists the raw material of becoming.

I do not view the Void as something to fear. I see it as a creative field — a place of reflection, possibility, and renewal where meaning is continually discovered and reshaped.

QUANTUM THREADS

Connection • Interweaving • Seen and Unseen

Quantum Threads represent the invisible interconnection between seemingly separate things — ideas, people, moments, patterns, systems, memories, intuitions, timelines, and experiences. They symbolize my understanding that life is layered, relational, and far more interconnected than it first appears.

This Meaning Maker allows science, spirituality, psychology, symbolism, creativity, and intuition to coexist rather than compete. I do not feel required to divide logic from wonder or structure from mystery. Both can inform my understanding of reality simultaneously.

Quantum Threads remind me to pay attention to patterns, resonance, synchronicity, relationships, and the subtle ways meaning weaves itself across time and experience.

THE SPIRAL

Cycles • Evolution • Returning Differently

The Spiral represents the cyclical nature of growth, healing, learning, creativity, and transformation. Life does not move in perfectly straight lines. We revisit emotions, themes, lessons, relationships, and versions of ourselves repeatedly, but each return carries the possibility of deeper understanding and greater integration.

The Spiral reminds me that repetition is not failure. Seasons change. Energy shifts. Expansion and contraction are both natural parts of growth. What matters is not avoiding cycles entirely, but moving through them with increasing awareness, coherence, and self-understanding.

I trust the Spiral because it honors both evolution and humanity. It allows growth to be layered rather than forced.

MYCELIUM

Interconnection • Nature • Living Systems

Mycelium represents the hidden networks that sustain life beneath the surface. It symbolizes my connection to nature, collective consciousness, ecosystems, community, and the quiet forms of intelligence woven throughout existence.

Like mycelial networks beneath the forest floor, much of what shapes life is unseen yet deeply interconnected. Small actions ripple outward. Individual well-being affects collective well-being. What appears separate is often part of a larger living system.

This Meaning Maker reminds me to remain grounded in the natural world, aware of interdependence, and respectful of the delicate systems that sustain both human life and the broader living planet.

DREAMS

Reflection • Insight • Inner Dialogue

Dreams represent my relationship with the subconscious, imagination, symbolism, intuition, memory, and inner reflection. Whether experienced during sleep or through waking vision and imagination, dreams allow deeper layers of thought, emotion, and meaning to surface into awareness.

I view dreams as spaces of reflection, integration, processing, inspiration, and insight. They often reveal emotional truths, unresolved tensions, hidden desires, creative ideas, or symbolic patterns that may not be fully visible in ordinary conscious thought.

Dreams remind me to remain in conversation with my inner world rather than becoming disconnected from it.

MUSIC

Emotion • Resonance • Human Connection

Music represents one of the deepest forms of emotional resonance, expression, memory, connection, and meaning in my life. It moves beyond language while still communicating profound emotional truth. It shapes atmosphere, identity, memory, creativity, healing, celebration, grief, and collective experience.

Music reminds me that sound has the power to regulate emotion, awaken memory, inspire movement, create belonging, and transform ordinary moments into meaningful ones. It connects the body, mind, and emotional world in ways few other experiences can.

More than entertainment, music is one of the primary ways I experience aliveness, connection, and emotional depth within the human experience.

SPIRITUALITY GALAXY

PURPOSE

The Spirituality Galaxy exists to tend my connection to mystery, meaning, nature, ritual, dreams, synchronicity, my higher self, and the unseen forces that help me feel rooted, guided, and alive.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

CONNECTION

MEANING

WHY THIS GALAXY MATTERS

The Spirituality Galaxy matters because it is where I nourish my relationship with the mystery of being alive. It is not about following a prescribed religion or forcing my beliefs into a fixed shape. It is about connection, remembrance, energy, depth, and meaning. This Galaxy gives me a place to honor the moon phases, the seasons, the rhythms of nature, the movement of my own spirit, and the quiet ways the universe speaks through symbols, dreams, synchronicity, and frequency.

My spirituality is both simple and impossible to fully define. It lives in ritual, magic, nature, witchcraft, intuition, energy work, and the ongoing, daily conversation between the cosmos above me and the earth beneath my feet.

It also lives at the edge where science and spirit begin to braid together — in quantum entanglement, unseen fields, energetic resonance, and the possibility that reality is far stranger and more sacred than humans can fully comprehend.

This Galaxy helps me remember that I am not separate from the universe. I am a spirit having a human experience, here to touch, taste, smell, feel, create, and ground my energy into form before returning to the stars.

I believe in my own personal power. I believe in my connection to my higher self, to the Void from which all things emerge, and to the larger web of life that holds us all.

I am fluent in frequency, and this Galaxy is where that fluency is honored, practiced, and deepened.

NORTH STAR

I am tending the Spiritual Galaxy so that I remain connected to mystery, guided by meaning, rooted in nature, and open to the unseen wisdom moving through my life.

GRAVITY

Wonder
Sovereignty
Autonomy
Devotion
Beauty

These values anchor the Spirituality Galaxy because tending my connection to the unseen requires openness, discernment, and trust in my own inner knowing.

Wonder keeps me open to mystery, synchronicity, magic, and the possibility that life is far more layered than it appears.

Sovereignty reminds me that my spiritual path belongs to me, and does not need to fit inside any prescribed religion, system, or expectation.

Autonomy gives me permission to explore, question, practice, and believe in ways that feel true to my own spirit.

Devotion helps me return to ritual, remembrance, energy work, nature, and soul nourishment as living practices.

Beauty reveals the sacred through moonlight, seasons, symbols, dreams, nature, and the quiet poetry of being alive.

Together, these values make Spirituality a practice of staying connected to mystery while remaining rooted in my own truth.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

CONNECTION

Holds my relationship with myself, my higher self, other people, nature, the cosmos, dreams, synchronicity, energy, ritual, and the unseen web of life. This Solar System helps me move beyond my own mental loops and remember that I am part of something vast, alive, intelligent, and interconnected.

MEANING

Holds the wisdom, insight, symbolism, reflection, and deeper understanding that emerge from spiritual connection and inner exploration. This Solar System helps me interpret my experiences, integrate what I learn, and shape a life that feels guided, soulful, and true.

Together, these Solar Systems tend the larger purpose of Spirituality: staying connected to mystery, rooted in self-truth, and open to the deeper wisdom moving through my life.

SUNS, PLANETS & STARDUST

SUN ~ CONNECTION: Time in Nature

This goal is important because it's prime outdoor time in Michigan. Everything is blooming, it's warm and that makes my body, mind and spirit incredibly happy. This time of the year is inspirational and spending time in nature will improve my Creativity, Lifestyle and Vitality Galaxies, as well as connect me more deeply with the Earth and the Cosmos.

PLANETS ~

Immersion outside my home
Infusion inside my home
Travel and exploration

STARDUST ~

Hammock sessions with a book
Walks at parks
Balcony time with Myrna
Road trips in Michigan
Moon viewing events

SUN ~ MEANING: Complete The Universe of Jen and display it

This goal is important because it will not only set my life's path in a meaningful way, but ensure that it is at the center of my daily life. That is the reason I created it. By completing and displaying it, I am announcing to myself that I have the power to become exactly who I intend to be.

PLANETS ~

Digitally map The Universe in my Docs
Create printable formats that can be reused
Determine review schedule and progress documentation

STARDUST ~

Create and hang charts in kitchen and office
Daily review and mental notes
Journal and Sylari to find insights

MOON

In the shadows of these solar systems lies my habit of prioritizing work and not intentionally making time for other meaningful activity. While I find it easy to set aside work to create something new, making time for nature seems to fall aside.

Phase ~ Full moon

A known, active pattern that needs full awareness

FOCUS

My focus for Spirituality is to create weekly, intentional time and space for nature in the next 4 months.

I do not wait for space to appear.

I create space and life fills it.

VITALITY GALAXY

PURPOSE

The Vitality Galaxy exists to tend my body, energy, nervous system, movement, nourishment, and long-term well-being so I can live a longer, freer, happier life with less pain and more capacity for joy.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

MOVEMENT

ENERGY

NOURISHMENT

WHY THIS GALAXY MATTERS

The Vitality Galaxy matters because my body is the vessel through which I experience everything else. My creativity, relationships, work, pleasure, purpose, and spiritual growth all move through this human form. Tending my health is not about control, punishment, or fixing myself. It is about honoring the body that carries me through this life and giving it what it needs to stay strong, clear, supported, and alive.

This Galaxy also holds some of my deepest wounds. Movement and exercise have often felt tangled with body image, shame, punishment, and old trauma that began when I was very young. Because of that, Vitality requires gentleness. It asks for gradual change, conscious reframing, and habits that help me feel more connected to my body instead of at war with it. This is not the place for harsh discipline. This is the place for devotion.

I value natural approaches to wellness, nourishment, and healing whenever possible. I want to support my body with real food, natural remedies, supplements, nervous system care, movement, rest, and rhythms that help me thrive. My health is generally very good, and I want to protect that gift for as long as I can. As I approach 50 and beyond, this Galaxy helps me build the foundation for a long, fulfilling life — one rooted in vitality, self-respect, and deep care for the body I live in.

NORTH STAR

I am tending the Vitality Galaxy so that my body becomes a trusted home, my energy becomes sustainable, and my life has the strength, ease, and longevity to keep expanding.

GRAVITY

Alignment
Devotion
Resonance

These values anchor the Vitality Galaxy because tending my body, energy, nervous system, movement, nourishment, and long-term well-being requires balance, consistency, and deep listening.

Alignment helps me choose what genuinely supports my body instead of forcing myself into someone else's version of health.

Devotion reminds me that vitality is built through small, steady acts of care — not punishment, perfection, or shame.

Resonance teaches me to notice what creates true strength, ease, energy, and aliveness from within.

Together, these values make Vitality a practice of caring for my body as a trusted home, not a problem to solve.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

MOVEMENT

Holds the way I build strength, flexibility, mobility, and a kinder relationship with exercise. This Solar System supports motion without punishment, shame, or force — helping my body feel more capable, connected, and free.

ENERGY

Holds my daily vitality, nervous system balance, rest, sleep, supplements, natural remedies, stress care, and the practices that help me feel steady, clear, and capable. This Solar System reminds me that energy is created through both action and restoration.

NOURISHMENT

Holds food, hydration, intuitive eating, body support, natural wellness, and the ways I feed myself with care instead of guilt or restriction. This Solar System supports my body from within so I can feel grounded, strong, and alive.

Together, these Solar Systems tend the larger purpose of Vitality: creating a long life with less pain, more joy, more strength, and more freedom inside my body.

SUNS, PLANETS & STARDUST

SUN ~ MOVEMENT: Wear Mother-of-the-Groom Dress Comfortably

This goal matters because I want to feel physically comfortable, confident, and at ease in my body on a meaningful day. It gives me a clear, time-bound reason to move consistently and support my body in a tangible way.

This is not about punishment or forcing change. It is about creating consistent movement and supportive habits that naturally lead to feeling better in my body.

The outcome is specific and measurable: losing approximately 10–15 pounds by September 4, while building strength, mobility, and daily movement habits that will continue beyond this moment.

PLANETS

Daily movement baseline
Structured exercise weekly
Progress tracking

STARDUST ~

7k - 10k steps per day
Daily stretch and short core workout
Use fitness center at apartment complex 2 times each week
Keep work out bag visible and ready
Pilates at home 1 time per week
Keep nourishment Sun in this orbit daily
Weigh in weekly
Try on dress at least monthly

SUN ~ NOURISHMENT: Improve Liver Enzyme Levels

This goal matters because it directly impacts my gallbladder health and overall well-being. Supporting my liver through consistent nourishment and reduced strain is essential to avoiding future issues and maintaining long-term vitality.

This is about making daily choices that support my body in a measurable way — not through restriction, but through consistency and awareness.

The outcome is clear: improved liver enzyme levels at my next blood test.

PLANETS

Consistent daily nutrition
Reduce alcohol intake
Support liver through food and supplement use daily

STARDUST ~

Eat 3–4 meals per day (no skipping/overcompensating)
Include fruits + vegetables daily
Limit alcohol to intentional occasions only
Take supplements daily (set out the night before)
Schedule and complete August bloodwork + appointment

SUN ~ ENERGY: Open Each Day with Intention

This goal matters because the way I begin my day shapes how I move through it. I want to shift away from drifting through late nights and reactive mornings, and into a rhythm that feels steady, grounded, and supportive. Intentional mornings help regulate my energy, reduce overwhelm, and create more space and freedom in my evenings.

This is not about rigid routines or becoming a “morning person.” It is about beginning each day gently, clearly, and on my own terms.

PLANETS

Consistent waking rhythm
Grounded morning entry
Evenings that support tomorrow

STARDUST ~

Wake within a general window (no harsh rules)
No phone for the first 15–30 minutes
Open light + drink water
Ask: What really matters today?
Light stretch or grounding practice
Begin winding down by ~10:30pm (no aimless scrolling/TV drift)

MOON

In the shadows of this Galaxy lives a lifelong pattern of using structure, goals, and discipline as a form of self-judgment rather than self-support.

Exercise and nourishment became tied to pressure, shame, and the belief that I needed to change my body to be acceptable.

Because of this, even healthy goals can sometimes trigger old patterns of overcontrol, avoidance, or all-or-nothing thinking.

Phase ~ Dark

Deep subconscious material, old grief, ancestral patterning, or shadow that requires reverence.

FOCUS

Using structure as support, not pressure. Following through on my goals while staying connected to my body, my energy, and my self-respect.

I follow through without turning against myself.

When I get stuck, ask, "What is the smallest version of this that still counts?"

LIFESTYLE GALAXY

PURPOSE

The Lifestyle Galaxy exists to shape how I actually live — my home, routines, relationships, solitude, pleasure, beauty, values, and daily rhythms — so my life becomes a true reflection of who I am.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

EMBODIMENT

WHY THIS GALAXY MATTERS

The Lifestyle Galaxy matters because this is where my values become visible in ordinary life. It is the way I focus my energy, tend my space, move through my days, protect my peace, and integrate the other Galaxies into lived experience. While the Purple Codex flows through every part of my universe, this is the Galaxy where it becomes most tangible. It is the embodiment of alignment.

This Galaxy supports my need for both aliveness and solitude. I value fun, connection, beauty, pleasure, social energy, and meaningful relationships, but I also deeply value living alone, having sovereign space, and creating a home that belongs fully to me. My home is not just a place to sleep. It is a sanctuary, a mirror, and a stabilizing force. I want it filled with things I love that make me feel like myself.

Lifestyle also matters because peace is not accidental. It is chosen with intention. I want deep inner and outer peace, supported by routines that feel predictable, productive, spacious, and aligned with my natural rhythms.

I am not trying to perform someone else's version of a good life. I am creating my own. This Galaxy helps me live authentically, protect my energy, honor my pleasure, and refuse to shape my days around anyone I am not.

NORTH STAR

I am tending the Lifestyle Galaxy so that my life becomes a sanctuary in motion — sovereign, beautiful, rhythmic, alive, and unmistakably mine.

GRAVITY

Freedom
Solitude
Beauty
Resonance

These values anchor the Lifestyle Galaxy because shaping my home, routines, relationships, pleasure, peace, and daily rhythms requires me to honor how I actually want to live.

Freedom gives me room to build a life that reflects my truth, not someone else's expectations.

Solitude protects my need for sovereign space, quiet restoration, and a home that belongs fully to me.

Beauty helps me create surroundings, rituals, textures, colors, and experiences that nourish my spirit.

Resonance teaches me to notice what feels aligned, peaceful, alive, and genuinely mine.

Together, these values make Lifestyle a practice of cherishing myself, my space, and my world in the ways that matter most.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

HOME

Holds my sovereign space, solitude, comfort, beauty, tidiness, sensory environment, inner peace, and the physical sanctuary that reflects who I am. This Solar System helps me create a home that feels safe, peaceful, beautiful, and unmistakably mine.

CONNECTION

Holds my relationships, close friendships, family bonds, social aliveness, shared experiences, boundaries, and the ways I stay meaningfully connected without losing myself. This Solar System reminds me to cherish the people who matter while still honoring my need for solitude and sovereignty.

EMBODIMENT

Holds the daily practice of living as who I truly am — my routines, rhythms, pleasure, values, authenticity, personal style, choices, and alignment with The Purple Codex. This Solar System helps me keep my North Star at the front of my life, making sure my values are not just believed, but lived.

Together, these Solar Systems tend the larger purpose of Lifestyle: shaping my daily life into an authentic, peaceful, beautiful expression of who I truly am.

SUNS, PLANETS & STARDUST

Home Sun → stabilizes the field

Connection Sun → extends the field

Embodiment Sun → defines the field

SUN ~ HOME: Beautify my Balcony

This goal is important because it brings me closer to nature and provides an outdoor sanctuary that I want to spend time in. It's spring and summer, and the wooded area behind my home has been such a source of steadiness for my soul. My balcony connects me to it, to the moon and its magic, to the sun and its warmth, and to myself inside it all.

PLANETS

Create an atmosphere

Introduce living elements

Establish a ritual of use

STARDUST ~

Choose 1-2 new outdoor plants

Bring some houseplants outside

Upgrade the side table

Add an evening light source

Add an outdoor blanket to the fluffy chair

SUN ~ CONNECTIONS: Connect with new humans

This goal is important because, while my "old" best friends are incredible, I want to connect with people who are on a more spiritual journey, who I can relate to better in my current form. I want people who I can have deep conversations with about all of the things I've learned, explore new ideas and reach outside of the comfortable place I've created for myself.

PLANETS

Enter aligned spaces (physical or digital)

Create my own signal and frequency

Nurture emerging connections

STARDUST ~

One intentional reach-out per week

Engage 3 times per week in aligned spaces

Share one authentic post weekly

Follow curiosity threads

"Become findable"

(DONE) SUN ~ EMBODIMENT: Refine and Publish the Purple Codex

This goal is important because it is the central foundation of The Universe of Jen. It currently exists in 3 separate parts: The 5 Ps of Purple Jen, the 9 Archethemes and the 8 Principles. I want to find a way to integrate them into one document that is meaningful, has a unique flow and becomes one coherent foundation. It will be the prelude to the Universe of Jen, as a center that expands outward into my North Star and Gravity points.

PLANETS

Synthesize (bring pieces into one structure)
Define flow
Release version 1

STARDUST ~

Compile all content in one digital place
Choose order and flow
Light editing
Publish for myself

MOON

In the shadows of this Galaxy lives my tendency to delay visibility in the name of refinement. I can feel the pull to perfect, control, and protect before I allow anything to be seen. This is where hesitation disguises itself as readiness.

Phase ~ Waxing
Becoming visible, gaining influence, asking for early attention.

Whenever resistance shows up, ask: Is this refinement... or is this hiding?

FOCUS

I expand my inner alignment and allow it to take visible form in my outer life.

*I am not meant to wait until ready.
I am meant to grow through being seen.
I am not breaking through fear,
I am becoming visible through it.*

I live, and becoming follows.

CREATIVITY GALAXY

PURPOSE

The Creativity Galaxy exists to tend my art, writing, design, music, symbols, voice, play, passion, and self-expression so I can live as the creative being I truly am.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

HEALING

EXPLORING

EXPRESSION

WHY THIS GALAXY MATTERS

The Creativity Galaxy matters because creativity is how I color my world and my soul. It reminds me that life is not meant to revolve only around work, responsibility, productivity, or seriousness. I need play, exploration, beauty, expression, music, symbols, passion, and freedom. This Galaxy helps me stay connected to the part of myself that wants to make, imagine, experiment, adorn, transform, and express.

Creativity is not limited to paint on a canvas or poems on a page. It is the way I weave my outlook, values, personality, aesthetic, and voice into everything I do. It shows up in what I wear, how I speak, how I decorate, how I design, what I notice, what I name, what I build, and how I move through the world. My creativity is not separate from my life. It is one of the main ways my inner world becomes visible.

This Galaxy also protects my refusal to shrink into society's expectations. I have never truly fit inside the standard box, and I do not want to. I want to keep exploring the edges of myself and my creative power in ways that feel honest, alive, and non-traditional.

I may not always create from a blank canvas. I know how to transform what already exists. I can repaint, reframe, reimagine, remix, and reveal hidden beauty.

My passion belongs here, and when I let it move through me, it turns ordinary things into portals.

NORTH STAR

I am tending the Creativity Galaxy so that my soul keeps spilling color into form — through art, words, symbols, sound, style, transformation, and the wild freedom of being fully expressed.

GRAVITY

Wonder
Beauty
Resonance

These values anchor the Creativity Galaxy because tending creativity and self-expression requires curiosity, aliveness, and trust in what wants to emerge.

Wonder keeps me open to exploration, experimentation, play, and the unexpected edges of my creative power.

Beauty helps me bring color, feeling, meaning, and visual language into the world in ways that reflect my soul.

Resonance teaches me to recognize what feels true, alive, expressive, and unmistakably mine.

Together, these values make Creativity a practice of exploring what is possible from within myself and giving it form.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

HEALING

Holds creativity as restoration, meditation, emotional processing, nervous system care, community connection, and a gentle way of returning to myself. This Solar System includes the creative practices that soothe me, steady me, help me process what I'm carrying, and remind me that making something with my hands can also be a form of medicine.

EXPLORING

Holds creativity as experimentation, play, curiosity, edge-walking, skill-building, and discovery. This Solar System gives me permission to try new tools, follow strange sparks, push beyond familiar patterns, and explore what else is possible from within my creative power.

EXPRESSION

Holds creativity as visible selfhood and the ways my inner world becomes form. This Solar System helps me live as the creative being I am, weaving my outlook, values, personality, and soul-color into how I move through the world.

Together, these Solar Systems tend the larger purpose of Creativity: keeping my soul alive, playful, expressive, and woven into every part of how I live.

Healing brings me home.

Exploring expands the edges.

Expression lets the inner world become visible.

SUNS, PLANETS & STARDUST

SUN ~ HEALING: Complete the Campfire Painting and Gift to Andrea

This goal matters because it is an act of remembrance, connection, and creative healing.

PLANETS

Create calm, dedicated painting time
Work in small, low-resistance sittings
Let imperfections exist without corrective spirals

STARDUST ~

Play music tied to 'camping with Andrea' while painting
Light a candle when I sit down to work

SUN ~ EXPLORING: Complete and Hang the Mirror Spiral Piece

This goal matters because it is an act of creative risk, experimentation, and claiming space in my home.

PLANETS

Break it into phases (assemble, adhere, cure, hang)
Choose a "done > perfect" threshold ahead of time

STARDUST ~

Give myself permission to mess it up (literally say it out loud)
Take progress photos (to witness yourself doing it)
Celebrate when it's hung, not when it's perfect

SUN ~ EXPRESSION: Publish one video per week in my real voice

This goal matters because it helps me step out of hiding and into being seen.
Sharing one video per week builds trust with myself, quiets self-doubt, and reminds me that my voice is allowed without needing to be perfect. Over time, it helps me become someone who is not just creative in private, but fully expressed in the world.

PLANETS

Let life create the content; create moments of truth
Create a container for creation
Post without perfection

STARDUST ~

Post without rewatching more than once
Don't delete videos after posting (this is big)
Speak as if I'm talking to one safe person
Let my natural tone stay — no "performing"

MOON

This Moon reflects my fear of being seen and judged when I share my creativity with others. It can show up as self-doubt, over-editing, procrastination, or the urge to keep things private until they feel "good enough." Rather than trying to eliminate it, I recognize this fear as a natural response to visibility and choose to create and share anyway.

Phase ~ Waxing

Becoming visible, gaining influence, asking for early attention.

FOCUS

Making my creations visible.

I don't need to be fearless to create. I only need to be willing.

I am not "starting to share."

I am ending the era of hiding.

FINANCIAL GALAXY

PURPOSE

The Financial Galaxy exists to tend my stability, resources, debt reduction, future planning, comfort, and financial freedom so I can support the life I actually want to live.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

EARNING

SPENDING

SAVING

WHY THIS GALAXY MATTERS

The Financial Galaxy matters because money, while not the center of my life, directly affects my capacity to live with freedom, peace, and choice. I do not see money as the highest form of wealth, and I do not want my life to revolve around accumulating more for the sake of more. To me, money is a tool. It is a resource, a lubricant, a practical force that helps support the other Galaxies. It helps create the conditions for health, creativity, home, solitude, pleasure, spiritual practice, and long-term security.

This is also an area where I have struggled. I have usually made enough to live relatively comfortably, but saving, paying down debt, and being deeply intentional with money have not come naturally. Part of tending this Galaxy is changing my relationship with money without making it a god. I can become more responsible, more stable, and more future-minded without betraying my values or becoming consumed by the system I dislike.

As I approach 50, this Galaxy matters because my future self deserves care. I want to live, and thrive, alone, which requires financial stability. Thinking ahead to retirement, for me, it is not about not working. I love my work, and I will likely always want to create, contribute, and stay productive in some way.

True financial freedom means having enough stability to choose what I work on, when I work on it, where I work on it, and how much energy I give. It means reducing the fear of living paycheck to paycheck. It means preparing for medical needs, illness, aging, and the unknown.

This Galaxy helps me build a future where I am not trapped by money, but supported by it.

NORTH STAR

I am tending the Financial Galaxy so that money becomes a stabilizing resource that supports my freedom, protects my future, and allows the rest of my life to flourish.

GRAVITY

Freedom
Autonomy
Sovereignty
Devotion

These values anchor the Financial Galaxy because tending my stability, resources, debt reduction, future planning, comfort, and financial freedom requires responsibility without losing my truth.

Freedom reminds me that money is not the destination, but a resource that creates choice, breathing room, and possibility.

Autonomy helps me build financial patterns that support my ability to live alone, thrive alone, and make decisions from strength.

Sovereignty keeps me from handing my power over to fear, avoidance, debt, or outside expectations around money.

Devotion helps me stay committed to small, steady actions that create a more stable and supported future.

Together, these values make Financial a practice of building security, choice, and self-trust without letting money become the center of my life.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

EARNING

Holds the ways money enters my life — salary, client work, business income, products, passive income streams, and new opportunities for aligned revenue. This Solar System helps me strengthen my inflow without making money the center of my life.

SPENDING

Holds the ways money moves through my life — bills, debt payments, daily purchases, comfort, needs, wants, and the choices I make. This Solar System helps me spend with more awareness, intention, and self-trust instead of avoidance, guilt, or impulse.

SAVING

Holds the ways money stays, gathers, and protects my life — emergency funds, future planning, retirement, medical needs, long-term stability, and breathing room. This Solar System helps me care for my future self while creating more security and freedom today.

Together, these Solar Systems tend the larger purpose of Financial: making money a stabilizing resource that supports my freedom, protects my future, and allows the rest of my life to flourish.

Earning brings money in.

Spending directs its flow.

Saving protects what matters next.

SUNS, PLANETS & STARDUST

SUN ~ GENERAL: Weekly Financial Check In

This goal matters because it prevents avoidance and keeps me accountable to my Suns.

SOLAR FLARES ~

Review balances (no avoidance)

Track debt reduction progress

Check income pipeline

Take 1 action in each Solar System

Add a tech tool to help me understand and better manage financial Galaxy

SUN ~ EARNING: Add 2-3 Short Term Client Projects (Closed + In Progress)

This goal matters because it bridges immediate income gap while maintaining aligned capacity and preventing financial stress spillover into other Galaxies.

PLANETS ~

Freedom Electric Marine: Retain and stabilize

Rockford Brewing: Convert or close loop

1-2 New Opportunities: Actively sourced

STARDUST ~

Move FEM to retainer model after initial billing

Send Rockford Brewing proposal

Add 2 dedicated outreach/work blocks weekly

Identify and reach out to 2-3 potential leads

Complete + invoice all open small projects

SUN ~ SPENDING: Credit Card Debt Reduction by $4000 by the end of August

This goal matters because it creates visible momentum, not just maintenance. Progress reduces emotional weight faster than intention alone.

PLANETS ~

Am Ex Reduction

Visa Reduction

Monthly Spending System

STARDUST ~

Note current balances

Review and revise general budget with set amounts each month

Set fixed monthly allocation (non-negotiable baseline)

Pay on time: AmEx (18th), Visa (24th)

Make 1 extra payment per month (minimum trigger: any client income over $300)

No new spending on cards unless it is critical in nature

SUN ~ SAVING: Establish Clear Resolution Plan for Back Taxes

This goal matters because it clears the old, avoidant decisions and creates a path forward for resolution. Addressing back taxes ensures the safety of my business life. It creates an early level of financial freedom that allows new doors to open in the future, especially as I start to think about moving to a new home.

PLANETS ~

Total tax liability amount

Resolution Path

Future safeguards

STARDUST ~

Follow up with Mark (accountant)

401K liquidation options and consequences vs. payment plan

Choose path and initiate within 30 days

Explore safeguards with Mark

MOON

This Moon reflects a long-standing pattern of avoidance, delayed response, and emotional detachment from money, alongside impulsive micro-spending used for momentary relief or reward.

Phase ~ Full

Clearly active and influential.

FOCUS

My focus is facing financial avoidance directly, creating a clear resolution plan for back taxes, and making measurable progress on credit card debt so I can stabilize my present and restore trust in myself.

I face what I once avoided, not with shame, but with steadiness. What I build now, I am willing to hold.

BUSINESS GALAXY

PURPOSE

The Business Galaxy exists to tend, lead and evolve my purposeful work, leadership, client work, products, income streams and business evolution so my work continues to support my freedom, creativity, lifestyle, and long-term financial stability.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

TAX FORM GALS

PURPLE GEN

OTHER POSSIBILITIES

WHY IT MATTERS

The Business Galaxy matters because work is a central part of my life, identity, and freedom. I love what I do. My work allows me to be creative, strategic, useful, independent, and self-directed. It gives me the flexibility and freedom I deeply value and want to protect. Business is not just how I earn money. It is one of the main ways I contribute, create, lead, and shape the life I want to keep living.

This Galaxy has two major Solar Systems: The Tax Form Gals and Purple Gen. Both are important, and both are evolving.

With The Tax Form Gals, Patty's health and gradual transition are asking me to step into a deeper level of understanding, responsibility, and leadership as I prepare to eventually carry the business forward. This moment is not just maintenance. It is a handoff, a restructuring, and a quiet claiming of leadership.

With Purple Gen, I am shifting from primarily client-based website and marketing work into a more focused model built around the Web Clarity Method, consulting, and scalable offers. Both paths require structure, discernment, and clear Suns to orbit around.

This Galaxy also holds the seeds of future revenue streams. Void Vibrations, Cloud Sourced Wisdom, Boombox Bingo, Co+Keepers, and other emerging ideas may become additional Solar Systems over time. These possibilities matter because multiple income streams, including some passive income, will help strengthen my Financial Galaxy. The goal of this Solar System is to organize the moving parts, honor the evolution already underway, and create a business life that supports the whole Universe rather than consuming it.

NORTH STAR

I am tending the Business Galaxy so that my work remains purposeful, profitable, creative, organized, and free — supporting the life I want now and the future I am building.

GRAVITY

Freedom
Autonomy
Sovereignty
Alignment
Devotion

These values anchor the Business Galaxy because tending my meaningful work, leadership, client work, products, income streams, and contribution requires both grounded stability and future-focused evolution.

Freedom reminds me that business exists to support the life I want, not consume it.

Autonomy helps me protect the ability to choose when, where, how, and with whom I work.

Sovereignty keeps me rooted in my own leadership, decisions, direction, and standards.

Alignment helps me shape offers, income streams, and responsibilities around what resonates with me, and feels true, useful, and sustainable.

Devotion reminds me to keep showing up for the work, the systems, the transitions, and the future I am building.

Together, these values anchor a practice of holding steady where I am, while expanding with intention toward what comes next.

SOLAR SYSTEMS

TAX FORM GALS

Holds the established business and marketing responsibilities, while adding operational responsibility, financial systems, Patty's transition, ownership continuity, and my growing role in carrying the full structure forward. This Solar System helps me understand, protect, and eventually lead the business with steadiness, clarity, and continuity.

PURPLE GEN

Holds my independent business, client work, the Web Clarity Method, consulting, and the evolution from service-based work toward more scalable income. This Solar System helps me turn my experience and insight into aligned offers, trusted guidance, and position myself as a trusted strategic voice beyond direct execution.

OTHER POSSIBILITIES

Holds the emerging business seeds, future income streams, passive or semi-passive products, and creative ventures that may become more defined over time. This includes possibilities like Cloud Sourced Wisdom, Void Vibrations, Boombox Bingo, Co+Keepers, and any new aligned idea that asks for attention.

Together, these Solar Systems tend the larger purpose of Business: creating meaningful and purposeful, profitable, organized, and aligned work that supports my freedom, lifestyle, and long-term financial stability.

Tax Form Gals holds the foundation.

Purple Gen carries the evolution.

Other Possibilities plant the future seeds.

SUNS, PLANETS & STARDUST

SUN ~ TAX FORM GALS: Own and Stabilize Operations

This goal matters because it allows Patty to semi-retire without worry that the business is steady. It allows me to step up as the leader while she is still here. It sets the stage for the future.

PLANETS

- Work at the office 3 days each week
- Work with Patty as she performs daily tasks
- Document procedures
- Ensure the right things get done each week

STARDUST ~

- Work through the list of things I know that I need to know
- Build system for pulling marketing lists from QBO
- Ask the right questions
- Use my 'new' morning rhythm to arrive at the office ready for the day
- Connect with Dawn and Sarah to provide structure for daily operations
- Create online repository of documentation

SUN ~ TAX FORM GALS: Launch and Stabilize New Websites

This goal matters because it sets the stage for future online sales growth. It provides full control of our main source of revenue, solidifies programmer resources and backup systems, improves branding and user experience.

PLANETS

- Technical framework
- Content and design
- Launch and monitor

STARDUST ~

- Close the programmer gap with Mike + AJ
- Work closely with DreamHost on technical framework
- Import user, order and product data
- Complete Defile site
- Refine TFG site
- Testing
- Reconfigure Google Ads

SUN ~ PURPLE GEN: Establish Web Clarity Method as Core Offer

This goal matters because it is the future of Purple Gen. It evolves my business from a focus on time-intensive client web design work to a product-based and consulting business. This change allows me to build passive income, as well as shift to larger-value advisory projects that better reflect my knowledge and experience.

PLANETS

- Web Clarity Method guides
- Website revamp
- Publish and promote

STARDUST ~

- Intentional time 2-3x per week focused on this project
- Complete and publish digital guides (revamp as digital product, not consulting tool)
- Create consulting model
- Supporting web content
- Ecommerce set up
- Email current customers on changes
- Beta users for guides?

SUN ~ OTHER: Prototype Host Boombox Bingo Business

This goal matters because it creates passive income from a system I've already created for personal use. It blends my love of music with my business sense to serve an emerging market.

PLANETS

- Outline framework of system
- Build playlists
- Create Bingo Cards
- Build website

STARDUST ~

- Intentional time 1-2x per week dedicated to this project
- Document system flow
- Create an Apple Music account, others?
- Upgrade Spotify to Family plan and use separate account for HBB playlists
- Import current playlists to new accounts?
- Create generic bingo cards template and recreate existing cards
- Website Map and functionality plan development

MOON

This Moon reflects the lingering pattern of self-doubt that questions my intelligence, capability, and readiness to lead at this level.

It surfaces as hesitation, overthinking, or the urge to prove myself before acting.

Phase ~ Waning

Releasing, softening, or losing its old power.

I am releasing the need to be “ready enough” before stepping fully into responsibility. I am allowing evidence, action, and lived experience to replace old narratives.

FOCUS

I am fully stepping into this next era of my professional life — leading with clarity, building with intention, and trusting my capability as I create the systems that support me.

I do not wait to become capable.

I become capable by stepping forward.
